themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

AMERICAN CORRECTIVE
COUNSELING SERVICES, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. C01-21151 JW

CLASS ACTION

STIPULATION TO DISMISS FIRST, FOURTH, FIFTH AND SIX CLAIMS FOR RELIEF;

 PROPOSED ORDER

STIPULATION

WHEREAS the operative consolidated amended complaint (Docket # 283) contains six claims for relief for: (1) violation of California Constitution, Article I, Sec. 1; (2) violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act; (3) violation of Business & Professions Code 17200 et seq.; (4) conversion; (5) fraudulent misrepresentation; and (6) negligent misrepresentation; and

WHEREAS the fourth, fifth and sixth claims for relief were not certified for class treatment; and

WHEREAS the first claim for relief was certified for class treatment only as to claims for non-monetary relief, and Defendants Don Mealing and Lynn Hasney ceased to be involved with ACCS over six years ago; and

WHEREAS the parties desire to streamline the case for trial;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiffs Elena del Campo, Ashorina Medina and Lisa Johnston as class representatives, and the remaining Defendants, Don Mealing, Lynn Hasney and Inc. Fundamentals, by and through their respective counsel of record, that the first claim for relief for violation of California Constitution, Article I, Sec. 1, the fourth claim for relief for conversion, the fifth claim for relief for fraudulent misrepresentation, and the sixth claim for relief for negligent misrepresentation, be dismissed.
